The Partnership

A leading global manufacturer, DexKo Global provides axles, chassis, and other components for trailer, towable equipment, and RV manufacturers around the world. This global organization was formed in late 2015 when two large companies (Dexter and AL-KO Vehicle Technology) joined forces. Post-merger, the organization has continued to make new acquisitions (40 and counting) and has more than doubled in both revenue and number of employees.

Dion Leadership began working with DexKo Global in 2019 when Chuck Jozwiak joined the company as the Director of Global Talent. “I got to know Steve Dion in my previous job as Director of Talent Management at Carhartt,” explains Joswiak. “After seeing their firm work and the results they achieved, I knew Dion Leadership would be the perfect partner for DexKo. Their team brought a strategic mindset to our challenge. A large cadre of experienced coaches and facilitators allows them to mobilize quickly and efficiently.”

The Challenge

DexKo’s rapid expansion initiated a key strategic objective: Find, develop, and support talent from within to create strong leaders who have the skills to enable the growth of the organization.

The Solution

Partner with Dion Leadership to create a set of integrated programs for consistently developing the mindsets and skill sets of all levels of leaders in the organization.

A Closer Look

Grounded in DexKo's success standards, Dion Leadership created and launched a comprehensive leadership development program for this fast-growing business. High potentials were prioritized for the initial rollout. Branded as NEXT, the program included directors and managers who were strategically intermixed (goal: break down business unit silos). To date, 131 leaders from the United States, Europe, and Australia have completed the program.
